ICE ON THE HUDSON.

Poor Outlook for the Season's Crop Reported.

Prospects Said to be Brighter at Another Place.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 26. The ice on the Hudson from Newburg Bay down is bearing to-day except along the shores. Captain Hopkins, of the steamer Albany, is greatly disappointed at reports of poor ice crop. The principal dealer in New York said to-night that he had just been to Maine to get a supply.

More from Ft Wayne

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Jan. 26. Notwithstanding reports that the ice at Castleton is very thin, it is said from there that it is very thicker than usual, and that the crop is almost. The prospects for an ice crop are becoming brighter every hour. The weather to-night is very cold.

A SCHOOL TRAGEDY.

Explosion Followed by Fire.

Several Students Mangled and Many Injured.

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., Jan. 26. At two o'clock this afternoon in the high school at Lexington, in this county, there was an explosion of an ice return by which nearly all of the rooms were destroyed by fire. Those who were occupying the rooms at the time were badly injured. Nothing was found in the ruins to-night to indicate as to how the explosion occurred. The principal, Miss Hattie Hamilton, was badly burned. Several students were also burned. Many were injured by jumping from the windows. Miss Hamilton's injuries are considered fatal. FROZEN IN THE ICE.

Body of an Unknown Man Found in a Pond.

ATTLEBORO, Mass., Jan. 26. The body of a man was found this afternoon frozen in the ice on a farmer's pond. The man appeared to be about 40 years old and was 5 feet 9 inches tall. Nothing was found in his pockets to identify him, as far as known he was in this vicinity, by shipping.

Body Identified.

PROVIDENCE, Jan. 26. A dispatch to-day received from Attleboro, Mass., says the body found in the ice on Farmer's Pond was identified as James O'Connor, missing for four weeks.

RIVERS RISING.

Lives Lost and Towns Flooded in Queensland.

BRISBANE, Queensland, Jan. 26. The heavy rains have caused the Mary river to overflow its banks. Maryborough is the chief town of Wide county to be inundated. Six persons are known to have lost their lives in the flood.

FIRE RECORD.

A Frozen Out Church Burned.

SALEM, Mass., Jan. 26. The First church at Danvers Centre, Rev. Edward Hall, was burned soon after midnight last night, and a total loss. It was valued at $30,000. This is the historic old church whose parish of witchcraft fame. The fire started in the furnace.

The Loss.

DANVERS, Mass., Jan. 26. The loss by the burning of the First church and its contents is now definitely placed at $30,000; insurance $15,500. Many beautiful memorial windows were destroyed. The structure will be rebuilt at once.

THE BUILDERS' CONVENTION.

Resolutions Adopted.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 26. At the session of the National Builder's Convention to-day the executive committee submitted resolutions recommending all local unions to ask for all contractors in the country to agree to arrange their wages and rules of labor so as to meet the views of the Chicago union, which is the central organization. The committee also recommended that no member of any union work for any contractor who employs non-union men. The resolutions were adopted.

A Shocking Bloodshed of Depravity.

Fourteen Years Old Boy Instantly Killed by a Quarrel.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Jan. 26. Tobe Wilson, aged twelve, and Robert Miller, aged fourteen, quarrelled at Gonzales, their home Sunday night, and went to a neighborhood prairie to fight it out. Wilson secured a knife while Miller was in search of one. If he had a knife he would settle the matter very quickly. Miller produced a knife and gave it to Wilson, daring him to use it. Wilson at once drove the blade of the knife into Miller's breast. Miller fell dead and the young murderer fled, but afterwards went home and delivered himself up to the police. He has always been an unruly boy.

A Large Number Killed and Injured.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Jan. 26. A gang of Italian, Polish and Portuguese men at work widening the road-bed of the Baltimore, Lansburg and Lewisburg railroad, a mile and a half from here to-day, when three blasts were fired. Fourteen men were at work, the explosion. Only two blasts exploded. Supposing the last gone off, the men returned to the cut and to work, shovelling away the dirt and broken rock, when the third blast exploded. The men were hurled in all directions. Three were killed outright. Two others were badly mutilated. The dead bodies were taken from the debris. Five men were fatally hurt, and ten others more or less severely bruised.

MARY D. TAS.

Terrible Havoc of the Epidemic of Influenza.

Deplorable Condition of an Illinois Town.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26. What the correspondent of a Omaha city paper describes as a terrible state of affairs is reported in Chicago yesterday from the south during the prevailing epidemic of la grippe. The greatest mortality reported was at Omaha, Neb., where 100 deaths occurred in one week. Yesterday 190 deaths were reported. Over half of these were due to throat and lung diseases.

In Other States.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Jan. 26. A physician of this city who was called to Colfax yesterday found that place in a deplorable condition. Dr. Wilson had been dead from influenza. Dr. Longmaid was prostrated by the same disease, and for only dozen of the place were able to be up. Undertaker Goodenough is carrying on Gibbons' fall. Gerald Chandler was not in sufficient at the time of the shooting.

PRACTICALLY RAISED.

Trains will Move out of their Blockade Quarters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26. Superintendent Fillmore of the Southern Pacific says the blockade in the Sierras is practically raised. All the west bound trains at Truckee, Wadsworth and Reno will move to-night.

FROM WASHINGTON.

News About the Capitol.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26. The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of Richard Guenther, of Wisconsin, as Consul-General to the City of Berlin; John F. Wheelwright, Illinois, Consul to Dundee; and Lewis Gerschell, of California, Consul to Stuttgart.

CANADA REPRESENTED

With the Honorable Treaty of Reform by Sunday Mails.

OTTAWA, Jan. 26. Sir John Macdonald, Minister of Justice, was up to-day in reference to the difficulty between Great Britain and the United States. Members of the Government, including himself, thought it a matter entirely between the two great nations. The treaty of reform by Secretary Blaine and Sir Julian Pauncefote did not differ materially from that negotiated by Secretary Bayard, regarding the Canadian fishery question. A large number of orders-in-council issued in the treaty of 1888. As far as the Dominion government is concerned, no difficulty is anticipated in accepting the treaty. They were accepted with a view and would willingly acquiesce in its adoption.

A Conflagration at Lynn.

LYNNFIELD, Mass., Feb. 26. The factory of the Commercial River Railroad was totally burned, in connection with the Ashland road, running between South Vernon and Lynn, N. H.

CO-OPERATIVE COMPANY FAILED.

The Largest of the Kind in the Country.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26. The Philadelphia Industrial Co-operative Society Trust, capital fifteen thousand by mill hands and other working people of Lamberton, New Jersey, with liabilities of $50,000, to-day failed.

It was probably the largest association of that kind in the country. At one time it had a membership of fifteen hundred, but in the hard times of 1873 it dwindled down to about 200. Within the last few years, however, it has been doing well.

THE SECRETARY MARRIED.

Announced in Paper of the Colonel-ess.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26. Ernest C. Hiss, of New York, one of the general newspaper of the Red Lion Tabernacle, appeared before the House Committee on Elections Nos. 2 and 3 to-day and made a strong argument in favor of the Fitzpatrick-Goldy bill.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26. Among the memorials presented and referred was one from the Augusta, Me., Board of Trade for the selection of New York as a site for the World's Fair of 1892; also one presented by Mr. Hansbrough, for the passage of the Australian form of government in the State of Mississippi.

Mr. Morrill, in introducing a bill entitling to a pension Dr. Timothy Dexter, on the ground of service in the war of 1812, said that the committee had addressed a communication to the Secretary of the Treasury, saying that in connection with the bill it was desirable to consider a bill to extend the time for the redemption of the 5 per cent. loan of 1881, and that the Secretary had replied that he was not prepared to recommend any change in the present law, but that he would be glad to have the matter considered.

Among the Congressional dates of Mississippi, Mr. George referred to Lamar, who, he said, had been the first Democrat who had dared to differ from his party associates on the question of the reconstruction measures. He was followed by Mr. Walthall, who, in a brief address, eulogized the character of Jefferson Davis, as a man of the highest type of American citizenship, and as one who had always been true to the principles which he believed should frame every measure intended for both races, and to cultivate the relations between them.

On motion of Mr. Morrill the bill to authorize the Treasurer of the United States to use the present new channel to trade dollars in exchange for silver bullion and bearing to be issued to the Commission on Finance, until the commission had addressed a communication to the Secretary of the Treasury, saying that in their opinion it was desirable to modify the present law, and that the Secretary had replied to the Commission to the effect that he was not prepared to recommend any change in the present law, but that he would be glad to have the matter considered by the Commission. After this the bill was passed and Chairman Sherman, Senators Allison and Voorhees, constituting the committee to act, in conference with the Secretary of the Treasury.

On motion of Mr. Morrill the bill to provide for the better organization of the militia was taken up and passed.

Mr. Morrill introduced a
